In addition to the information requested above, you must do the following:

- Write an essay of between 150 and 300 words on why you would like to attend the Institute.
- Submit a list of your activities in the area of journalism and writing, including your experience in editing, reporting, and writing news stories, editorials, and feature material (whether for the print, online or broadcast media), and any related experience or activities. (In addition, we strongly encourage you to submit three to five samples of your work, preferably stories published in high school newspapers.)
- Ask your guidance counselor to send us the following items:
 - A transcript of your high school record including mid-year grades from current academic year;
 - Your grade-point average and class rank;
 - Standardized test scores (such as PSAT, SAT and/or ACT);
 - A school profile.
- Ask your journalism teacher, newspaper adviser or English teacher to send us a letter of recommendation that gives us an estimate of your talents or abilities in journalism and writing. The letter also should discuss your personal characteristics, such as initiative, reliability, leadership and ability to work with others. (You should give your teacher a stamped envelope addressed to us that your teacher could use in sending the letter.)
- Enclose a $50 check (in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. bank) made payable to Northwestern University for the non-refundable application fee.

All of these items should be sent to:

Professor Roger Boye
Medill School
1845 Sheridan Road
Northwestern University
Evanston, IL 60208-2101

DEADLINES:

All of the above items must be received by 4 p.m. March 18, 2019.
 Decision letters will be mailed to applicants on or before April 1, 2019.

(You should give your guidance counselor a stamped envelope addressed to us for use in sending the material. If your counselor cannot provide test scores, you can send them with your application. The Institute does not accept application materials by email or fax.)
